AN EVENING'S EVENTS.

Commencement Exercises at the Los Angeles College.

AN EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT

The Colored Forces Meet in Justice Austin's Courtroom—A Lively Session.

In the handsomely fitted hall of the Los Angeles College an audience representative of the best element of the city crowded and jammed last night until not only was all the floor accommodation exhausted, but the galleries and stairways even refused to hold any more. It was an occasion worthy of such an attendance, for the commencement exercises were to be held and the lady graduates of this year were to give an exhibition of the talents which had brought them into the front ranks. Clever fingers had made the little stage a perfect bower of beauty, and floral designs of entrancing effect met the eye from wall to wall, claiming attention with the hosts of pretty girls who fluttered about, laboring to make their visitors confortable. About thirty chairs were reserved on the platform for the faculty and patrons. In a semicircle in the centre of the rostrum were seated the heroines of the occasion. Their names are as follows: Isa Patterson, Laura Hanna, Department of Elocution; Margaret Anderson, Maud Hoffman, Department of Music; Alice Ball, Frances Young, Carrie Kinney, Grace Pickit, Neita Stout, Kate Curry, Flora Conger, Literary Department. Not all were there, though, Miss Ball having sailed, on May 29th last, for a trip in the Old World.

THE EXERCISES.

The proceedings were opened by prayer, and then Zimmerman's "Fairy Song" was rendered by the class in excellent style. The next feature was an essay on "The Mystic Number," by Miss Alice Ball, and the document she had written and left behind was carefully read by Miss Hanna. An essay on "Thought and Necessity," by Miss Frances Young, next claimed attention, and then Miss Lena Willey gave an excellent rendition on the piano of Leybach's "Norma Fantasia." Miss Carrie, who was second highest class standing, next read an essay on "The Ministry of the Novel," which was followed by an essay on "Life Out of Death," by Miss Grace Pickit, the highest class standing. Miss Anna McNab followed with a selected vocal solo, and heralded Miss Merta Stout, who read an essay on "The Poem of the Century." Miss Kate Curry next grappled with "The Niche of the Drama in the Temple of Art," and preceded Miss Helen Dunn, who at the piano rendered Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso." "A Janus View," by Miss Flora Conger, introducing a discussion on the probabilities of the future by all the graduates concluded the programme with the exception of a vocal solo and quartette by Miss Mamie Young and the Lorely Quartette.

To say that the different numbers well rendered does not seem enough, the performances were excellent. The wording of the essays showed careful thought and powers of research, while the renditions gave ample evidence of an able elocution teacher and an apt body of pupils. The singing was far above the average, the piano playing went without a hitch, in fact, a more successful entertainment could not by conceived as was well evidenced by the liberal applause that burst from the audience at the close of each selection.

Dr. Hanna was evidently a very happy man when he mounted the stage to say a few words before the meeting broke up. He referred to his pupils in a manner that showed that he attributed their success as much to their talents as to his training, and then went on to outline the prospects of the college. The intention is, he said, to make it for this part of the United States what the great institutions of Wellesley and Vassar are in the East. Wellesley was in fact the place on which his system was molded, he remarked, and then he went on to depict the arrangements for the future. The past year had seen 300 new names added to the school records, and when the next course commenced, on September 3d, he trusted and believed that the attendance would keep at a premium. In conclusion, he announced that the first exercises would be held the following evening in the First Presbyterian Church, on which occasion the Rev. Dr. Russell would deliver the address to the graduates. Then would come the presentation of the prizes and diplomas and all would be over.

A benediction was then pronounced and the audience arose, chatted and finally drifted away. Some very handsome floral trophies were sent to the stage at the close of the ceremonies for the graduates, who were kept in the hall until the last minute shaking hands with the many friends who seized the occasion to tender their congratulations.

TOPSY TURVEY.

The Colored Meeting Called by Louis Jacobs.

There was a sound of roaring and cheering last evening in Justice Austin's courtroom, where the colored men of the city were gathered together to take action on the proposition to appoint R. C. O. Benjamin, one of their number, to serve as United States Consul at Antigua. The meeting was called for a very different purpose from that to which it was finally put. Mr. Louis F. Jacobs, the gentlemanly and affable former janitor of the City Hall, does not believe in Mr Benjamin, and is much shocked that he should have received the endorsement of Representative Vandever for this appointment. In last Sunday's HERALD there appeared a letter signed "Voter," which pitched into Mr. Benjamin with great severity. In the next issue of the HERALD Mr. Benjamin responded in kind, carrying the war farther into Africa, so to speak, by ripping Mr. Jacobs up the back, assuming that he was the man who wrote the letter. Just why these colored brethren, all of Republican proclivities, should pick out a Democratic paper in which to air their differences does not appear, unless it is to be laid to its general merit as a disseminator of news; but it is a fact of history that during the last campaign the HERALD was called upon to publish a good deal of literature of this belligerent order.

Foiled in the newspaper attack Mr. Jacobs decided to assemble the colored people of the city together and learn just how they stood. He found out; but the result of the experiment could not have been very satisfactory to him. He published the call in the daily papers, and signed it "Louis T. Jacobs, Chairman, of the Committee." When the crowd assembled in and about the room, he looked them over carefully and made up his mind that Mr. Benjamin's friends were in a decided majority. What supporters he had—if he had any at all—when they took in the situation, thought best to get out of sight. Louis, of course, could not go, for the reason that he was Chairman of the Committee and had called the meeting. At last in response to constant urging from the others he gave the call to order.

"I assembled this meeting," said he, "to discuss and take action in and upon certain matters, notice whereof has been filed with the proper authorities in the newspapers; but I have obtained cognizance of the fact that the party of the second part has been aided and abetted in this action by the other parties here in court, and I hereby declare this meeting dispersed." Mr. Jacob's spends a good deal of his time in the Police Court room, and he finds the force of habit so strong that he is quite unable to speak in any but the most severely legal phraseology.

As he spoke he began to draw on his overcoat and proceed to turn out the gas, a duty which pertained to his office as janitor. Instantly there was a howl, and something like thirty-one colored men and voters were on their feet at once, calling Mr. Jacobs to order. He had ordered the meeting and they proposed to go on with it, and to take action on the matter of the appointment of Mr. Benjamin.

Mr. George Washington Hawkins, a colored man of portly figure and dignified mien, walked forward and pounded on the table with a big stick. Since the Chairman had abdicated, he said, it was necessary to appoint a successor. Major Twine, of the Bonebrake Invincibles, moved that Brother Hawkins, act in this capacity, and the latter gentleman in the excitement of the moment seconded the motion.

In the meantime, Jacobs had got to the rear end of the room, and had begun to put out the lights there. The room would have been dark in a moment more, had not the others rallied under the chandelier and driven him back. Then Louis went out in the hall to think it over. About twenty of those who were standing up and yelling "Order!" and "Mr. Chairman!" sat down, and comparative order was restored. George Wren was elected Secretary, and the meeting went on.

Major Tiwne delivered a glowing eulogy on his friend R. C. O. Benjamin, and the Rev. Anderson followed in a lively and humorous speech, in which he told a number of good stories at the expense of Mr. Jacobs. Thereupon the latter, who had been listening at a crack in the door, got wild, and rushing in made another abortive attempt to turn off the gas. He was overpowered by superior numbers and flung out of the door.

Somebody proposed that a sergeant-at-arms should be chosen whose especial especial duty it should be to knock down and drag out Louis Jacobs as often as he came in. Everybody declined the office and the plan was abandoned.

Major Twine moved that the meeting endorse the candidacy of Mr. Benjamin for the position of "Consul at Antigo." The Chairman wanted to put it "Minister" at Antigua, and when headed off on this, had to content himself with giving Benjamin the degree of "Councilman."

A rising vote was taken and it was unanimous, Mr. Fillman T. Brown taking occasion to make a very sensible and straightforward speech, in which he set before the colored brethren the necessity of dwelling together in harmony and standing by one another.

A vote was then taken on a question put by Chairman Hawkins entitled, "Did we break up Jacobs' meeting or not?" In spite of the ambiguous nature of the proposition, the vote was unanimous, though no one can say which way it went.

Mr. Benjamin, who had just entered the room, was called upon and delivered a few remarks, thanking his friends for their support, and promising to do his best for the race.

A gentleman by the name of Clundy then broke loose and it was not until a large part of the audience had adjourned to the hall outside that his flow of eloquence subsided. He said that Jacobs was "un condes mentos" (non compos mentis), and had been "evoluted." The meeting then adjourned with cheers for Benjamin, the Chairman of the Republican party, the reporters present and everybody else.

A Military Hop.

The dance given by Co. A, Seventh Infantry, N. G. C., in the Armory Hall last night, was the most successful affair of the kind that has been held for some time. It was an invitation gathering, and as a result none of those obnoxious characters who always obtrude where the general public are admitted were present.

The hall was handsomely and befittingly decorated. The National colors floated from the stage, the galleries were draped with bunting, and on the platform a campfire was burning outside two tents, the idea being that the company was out picketing. All of the guard were in full uniform, and the hall presented a very brilliant appearance throughout the evening. An endeavor was made to bring the festivities to a close by midnight, but it was somewhat past that hour before the dancers could be persuaded to depart. Great credit is due to the officers of the evening, who were as follows:—

Committee of Arangements:—First Sergeant H. C. Miles, Corporal J. H. Keller, Corporal Tom Brady, Musician J. Amer.

Reception Committee:—Captain W. G. Schrieber, First Lieutenant Ro Williamson, Second Lieutenant J. W. McPherson, First Sergeant J. L. A. Last, Sergeant F. Bland, Sergeant F. A. Martin, Corporal Wm. Brady, Musician J. Ames.

Floor Manager:—Private D. J. Cooper; Aides, Corporal Chas. Richie, Corporal James H. Cassidy, Musician J. Ames, Private C. H. Ruch, Private Jno. H. Richert.

A Correction.

The name of the eminent Scotch Divine, Rev. William Garden Blaikie, was incorrectly given in yesterday as William Gordon Blaikie.

THE JOHNSTOWN FUND.

Over $500 handed in Yesterday.—Tender of Thanks.

Treasurer Witmer received another liberal instalment of donations yesterday for the Johnstown fund, and at the close of the day his books showed the following receipts since the report was made to the City Council on Monday:

Through Turn Verein Society	$100.00
Through HERALD office	97.00
Through Christian Church	31.70
Through University Bank	35.00
On account of Ticket Fund	42.00
Officers and employees of the L. A. Cable Co.	237.50
Mr. John Forster	10.00
Mr. J. C. Kays	20.00
	$573.20
Balance on hand	$2,367,95
Total balance	$2,941 15

At the Church of the Angels, Garvanza, a collection for the sufferers was taken up on Sunday last, and $20 was realized. It was decided to send $10 to the Episcopal Church fund at Johnstown, and $10 to the Seattle sufferers.

The following communication has been presented by Colonel I. R. Dunkelberger:

We desire to tender thanks to Mr. J. H. Brenner for the efficient manner in which he managed the concert given on Saturday evening, June 8th, at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Johnstown sufferers. The programme was replete with interest and included the best artists. The committee are indebted to Mr. Brenner for being able to present to the public one of the most interesting and successful entertainments of the season.

Mr. Lee McGown, Jr., obtained the hall, gas and supplies of every description from our generous merchants and citizens and he deserves praise for his untiring efforts to make the concert a success.

We are pleased to state that the entire expense is less than $15. The members of the Musical Union provided music for the street parade and also composed the orchestra. Their efforts are therefore duly appreciated by the committee. The members of the Ellis Club gave their best songs in their usual excellent style, and assisted materially in making the concert a success. We are grateful to them for their generous contributions.

The young ladies of the Los Angeles College presented a very attractive programme, and we tender them our thanks for their kindness.

The following ladies and gentlemen, who so kindly assisted at the concert, deserve a high compliment for the excellent entertainment they dresented to our citizens: Miss Kate Fleming, Signorina Marchetti, Miss Maud Hoffman, Miss Helen Mar Bennett, Miss Broadwell, Signor Modini, Signor Arevalo, Misses Hawthorne, Fernandez, Burton, Fanning, and Rev. D. W. Hanna.

The following merchants generously donated their services and supplied the Committee with everything gratuitously: Mayor H. T. Hazard, Judge H. K. S. O'Melveny and George H. Pike for use of Academy of Music; Los Angeles Gas Co., gas; Brown's Music Store; Shroeder Bros., signs; The Electric Light Co.; J. M. Hale & Co., muslin; Los Angeles Construction Co. and City Cab Co., hacks; Los Angeles S. and C. and Lumber Co., lumber; F. H. Salisbury, buggy; H. C. F. Smith & Co., printing; H. L. Jordan, flowers; Central Park Floral Co., flowers; Mrs. Louise J. Carey, flowers; E. H. Freeman, printing; Commercial Printing House, printing; Mrs. Strauss, flowers; Baroness Rognait, flowers; Southern California Music Company, for use of Decker Bros. Piano; Messrs. McLean & Lehman, Messrs. Doyle & Isaacs, Bartlett, Clark & Co., Gardiner's Music Store, Mr. Baker of the Hollenbeck, Evening Express Printing Company, printing, and many others.

We desire to thank all the daily papers of Los Angeles and the press generally for advertising the concert so liberally. The receipts so far received amount to $787. Several parties who had tickets to sell have not yet settled.

I. R. DUNKELBERGER,
Chairman of the Committee.

ORANGE COUNTY.

The Argument Before the Judges Completed.

The argument in the case which involves the constitutionality of the act creating Orange county was concluded yesterday before the Judges of the Superior Court in banc. The concluding argument on behalf of the Commissioners, appointed under the act, was made by Judge J. W. Towner, who said that he only desired to make some additional points to those already made by Judge Hutton in his argument. There was a question, in his mind, as to whether or not the whole chapter of the Code of Civil Procedure, in reference to the proceeding, was not unconstitutional. Under the old Constution it contained no grant, to any court in the State, of the right to institute quo warranto proceedings, but the new Constitution conferred upon the Superior Courts the right to institute them. When the Code of Civil Procedure was passed the first section of the chapter contained, among other provisions, one that said: "The writ of quo warranto is hereby abolished." This was done when there was no grant of this right in the Constitution, but the new Constitution gave the Superior Courts the right to institute quo warranto proceedings, and in 1880 the section was so amended to make it conform to the Constitution. Under this state of affairs it was questionable as to whether the chapter was constitutional. Another question which was in doubt was as to whether a proceeding of this kind could be used to determine the question as to the existence of an office. He thought it could not, and cited numerous authorities to sustain his position. As to the objection of the plaintiffs, who alleged that the bill delegated to the people and Commissioners legislative powers, he did not think it amounted to much. The Legislature simply said that the bill would be a law if two-thirds of the people thought it ought to be a law. The objectors claimed that the bill did not take effect until after the vote had been cast. This he held to be wrong, for the bill itself said that it was to take effect immediately after its passage. It provided for the appointment of Commissioners, and they had been appointed before the vote was taken, therefore the act was in force. The same provision was required in the formation of municipal incorporations. The law is in effect, but it don't take effect as to particular persons until the vote has been cast. The Legislature said in this bill, the people residing in this district could have a county if they wanted. The only difference was in relation to the opportunity to vote. In forming municipal corporations, the people can vote on the question as often as they want, but in this case the act was to be inoperative if two-thirds of the voters did not vote for the formation of the county. It had been decided that the Legislature could delegate the power to the people to decide whether they should have a law or not.

The plaintiffs also objected to the bill because they said it created offices, fixed salaries, etc., when the same had been done by a general law. They said it violated a provision of the general law, yet they could not put their fingers on a single part of the bill which violated any one of the provisions of the Constitution. The bill provides a way to fill the offices already in existence, but does not create the offices any more than did the act providing for the appointment of two more Judges in this county. If one act is unconstitutional, the other must be also. The bill provides for the appointment of the officers and refers to the general law for salaries, duties, etc. He was utterly unable to see where any of the provisions of the constitution were violated.

Mr. Suchel closed the argument on behalf of the plaintiffs, and submitted a long list of authorities to show that quo warranto proceedings could be used to test the constitutionality of an act. He said that it seemed to him it would be better to decide the matter at once rather than have a multitude of actions in the courts. He held that the bill was unconstitutional, and that it did delegate legislative powers to the Commissioners and the people, and that it was a special act which was unnecessary, because the same matters had been provided for by the general laws.

The case was submitted to the court shortly before 5 o'clock.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Arrangements Being Made for Ten Days in August.

The members of the G. A. R. of the Seventh Inspection District Encampment will go into camp at San Pedro on August 8th, and will remain there for ten days. The Seventh District includes all the G. A. R. Posts from Santa Barbara county down to San Diego county inclusive and comprising five counties. The camp this year, therefore, is likely to be very enjoyable. In order to prepare for the camp, the Council of Administration met yesterday at the G. A. R. Headquarters, in the Bryson & Bonebrake block, District Commander Melvin Mudge in the chair, and Quartermaster L. H. Whitson, Adjutant M. F. Tarble and Comrades W. J. Brown, E. Bouton and W. B. Vankirk present. The question of music for the August Encampment was discussed, and the Adjutant was instructed to advertise for bids for a band of twelve pieces, to be subject to orders of the department at all times during the Encampment, to furnish five or more pieces of orchestra music for dancing at evening entertainments.

The resignation of Colonel O. H. Violet, as s member of the Council, was accepted, and Major J. A. Donnell, of John A. Logan Post, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The 15th of August, being the anniversary of John A. Logan Post, it was assigned to them the task of furnishing a programme of entertainment.

The 17th of August was, by request of the Citizens' Committee of San Pedro, assigned to them.

The Women's Relief Corps of this district, were voted a day to be selected by them, and the Adjutant was instructed to ask Mrs. W. J. Brown to call a meeting of the various corps to decide upon the day to be reserved.

A committee was appointed, consisting of comrades M. F. Tarble, W. J. Brown and L. H. Whitson to let the various privileges of the grounds during the encampment. John Brooker, of Dan Bidwell Post of Norwalk, and H. Z. Osborne, George H. Bonebrake and A. Barrett were present as visitors, and an interesting discussion was had concerning the encampment, after which the Council adjourned to meet again June 25th at 2 P. M.

FOR THE SUPREME COURT.

The Lawyers Meet and Endorse Judge Van Dyke.

About two-thirds of the Attorneys in the city met yesterday morning for the purpose of taking action toward recommending some one to the Governor for appointment to the bench of the Supreme Court, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Justice Temple. The meeting was convened at 9:30 o'clock in Judge Shaw's court-room, Judge Campbell in the chair, and J. C. Maccabe acting as Secretary. Judge J. Haines, after referring to the fact that there was a vacancy, said that he had come to the conclusion that Judge Walter Van Dyke was the proper man to recommend. He said that Judge Van Dyke was an able lawyer, a just judge, and eminently fitted to fill the position and discharge the duties of Justice of the Supreme Court.

Judge Anderson and Charles Batcheller seconded the recommendation, each saying that he thought Judge Van Dyke eminently fit for the position.

No one had another name to propose, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"At a meeting of the bar of Los Angeles, held on the 11th day of June, 1889, it was unanimously resolved that Hon. Walter Van Dyke be and is hereby recommended to the Governor for appointment to the vacancy on the bench of the Supreme Court caused by the resignation of Judge Jackson Temple.

ALEX. CAMPBELL, Chairman.
J. C. MACCABE, Secretary."

The resolution was signed by every member of the bar present and will be presented to the other attorneys in the city for their signatures, after which it will be forwarded to Governor Waterman.

The matter of appointing a committee to wait on the Governor and present the resolution was brought up, and after some discussion it was decided to appoint only Republicans on the committee. The following were then appointed on the committee: Mayor H. T. Hazard, Judge Alexander Campbell and Judge Haines.

The committee will leave for the North this evening and will present the resolution to the Governor.

The South Enders.

There will be a meeting of citizens residing South of Ninth street this evening, in the A. O. U. W. Hall, on the corner of Main and Laurel streets for the purpose of forming a Board of Trade. There are organizations of a similar nature at the West End, at East Los Angeles and at Boyle Heights, and the people residing at the South End think that they will obtain a better representation if they have a Board of Trade. A full representation is desired this evening.

Waldron vs. Waldron.

The divorce case of Mary Waldron against D. V. Waldron was partially tried before Judge Wade yesterday. The plaintiff in the case alleges cruelty on the part of her husband, the cruelty consisting of objectionable language. Mr. Waldron denies the allegations of his wife. The case is being tried with closed doors, and yesterday the testimony for plaintiff was completed.

The Hotel Arcadia,
Santa Monica, opens next Saturday, June 15th, for the season.

ATTORNEY McGREGOR.

Resolutions Adopted by the Bar Association Committee.

At a meeting of the Grievance Committee of the Los Angeles Bar Association held yesterday, Messrs. J. A. Graves, Vice Chairman, John Haines and George J. Denis being present; which meeting was called to examine into the alleged misconduct of Frederick McGregor, an attorney at law, the following resolution was offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, Frederick McGregor, an attorney at law, has, as we are informed, wilfully deceived Judge Clark, of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, by misrepresenting and suppressing facts in securing from him the approval of the bail bond of an accused person then under arrest, and

WHEREAS, The said McGregor has concealed himself or fled from the State to avoid the consequence of his act, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we denounce the conduct of said McGregor as disgraceful and unprofessional, and should he return to or be brought within the jurisdiction of our courts a meeting of this Committee be held to prefer charges for the disbarment of the said McGregor.

THE Y. M. I.

A Celebration to be Held on Monday Next.

The members of the Young Men's Institute, in this city, intend to have high jinks on Monday evening next. They have engaged the Los Angeles Theater for the occasion and will give to the public a grand musical and literary entertainment. The chief feature of the programme will be a lecture by Judge Sullivan, of San Francisco, who is a prominent member of the order and is passing his vacation lecturing for the good of the cause. It is also expected that the Hon. S. M. White will make an address, and Mrs. Dr. Kannon and Miss Cowper have promised to sing. A general admission fee of fifty cents is to be charged, and the proceeds are to be donated to the Y. M. I. library fund.

A number of the leading Catholic gentlemen are making arrangements to give Judge Sullivan a formal reception. He will arrive on Monday morning on the San Francisco train., and the idea is to receive him at the depot and take good care of him during his stay in the city.

An Ardent Admirer.

EDITORS HERALD—From recent rambles over several large tracts of unimproved arable lands throughout Southern California, I am led to the conclusion that the possible resources and undeveloped wealth of this section is more than 95 per cent. profitable growth of semi-tropical and alpine agriculture and horticulture productions.

It is true that there are rocky and inaccessible regions in all directions, but many of these higher mountain areas are suitable for the growth of valuable exotic timber of the best and most useful kinds, and lower down there is not a vegitable product but could be grown with profit in selected places that even now show no signs of being developed.

Every man, woman and child is decidedly interested in the opening up and development of these valuable lands, and eventually these areas must be developed. The press should be indefatigable in their efforts to present these facts to our visitors. I venture to doubt whether the part which these undeveloped tracts of land is to take in the future development of this section is adequately recognized by the majority of the home-seekers who look over this section with a view of settling.

Eight years have rolled into time since I first became acquainted with this section, and I have sat and listened to aged wise and liberal men—men whose whole lives have been devoted to the study of the products and quality of the soil, and that a short space of time has sufficed to prove, in spite of all this, the very sections that were, apparently, less favorable, have developed till the annual revenue leads our Eastern agriculturist to believe our statements are extravagant.

In my recent travel over that section comprising the new county of Orange, San Bernardino and San Diego, I find the same marked progress on all sides.

This week, while in the city of San Diego, I could not but admire the marked progress. Her buildings are large and attractive. In the short absence of six months I was surprised at the number of fine buildings completed and occupied. A large force of men were busy paving D street, several large buildings were in course of construction, and with Fifth street paved through the entire business portion of the city, she presents a busy, firm and substantial appearance.

DE WITT WISE.

An Equine Fugitive.

When on Monday night one of the Fifth street cars approached the zanja that has to be crossed en route to the Wolfskill depot, one of the horses scared at a loose board in the roadway. All attempts to soothe him were in vain, and he finally broke loose from his encumbrances and galloped off in the direction of East Los Angeles. All attempts to locate him have since been in vain, and up to last night the searchers had visited the pound, the police station and the principal livery stables without any reward for their trouble.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY.

Two Claims for the Arrest of Los Angeles County Murderers.

A very singular claim was presented to the Board of Supervisors at a recent meeting, which it has referred to the District Attorney for his decision on the question of its legality. Chief of Police J. F. Burns presents an itemized bill for a total of $400. The first item is $200 to go to W. H. Russell for his services in capturing Richard See, the alleged murder of Bill Duncan, and his delivery to the proper authorities. The other items of $200 is for the Chief himself for the killing of one Stephen Sansboy, alias Buckskin Bill, who murdered the Bilderbeck brothers. This is an old claim which has been presented several times before but which the Chief alleges has never been paid.

Together with the claim the Chief presents a certified copy of the record of the action taken by the Board of Supervisors on the 3d of April, 1871. It was "ordered that the sum of $200 be appropriated out of the current expense fund as a reward for the arrest and delivery of the murderer of the Bilderbeck brothers to the Sheriff of this county, and that the further sum of $200 be appropriated for the arrest and delivery of Richard See to the Sheriff of this county."

There is also appended a sworn statement of the Chief that upon June 24, 1871, he undertook to capture Buckskin Bill, near Real de Castillo, in Lower California, and, upon the latter's resisting, he shot and killed him. Before the man died he confessed he was the murderer of the Bilderbeck brothers. The killing and the identity of the fugitive were testified to under oath by several well-known citizens at that time.

The claim is by this time outlawed. under the statutes of the State, and there is a further reason why it should not be paid in the fact that the Supervisors did not have the authority at that time to offer any such reward. This was before the adoption of the present constitution and legislation of this sort was not delegated to county authorities, but was in the hands of the State alone. There is still a further ground for the non-payment of the claim in the fact that on February 8, 1872, the State Legislature passed a bill giving to Chief Burns the sum of $4,734.82 for his services in capturing this man Buckskin Bill. The probabilities are that neither of the items of the bill will be paid, although the moral grounds of the claim of W. H. Russell seems to be good, as he acted in good faith in going up to Washington Territory and bringing back Dick See.

THE LAW AND THE LADY.

They Get Tangled Up Together in Justice Savage's Court.

The wife of a well-known newspaper man of this city ordered a couple of dresses some time ago of a young and good-looking dressmaker. When they were delivered and tried on they were found to be unsatisfactory, and they were not paid for. The dressmaker sent in the bill several times, but the lady for whom the dresses were made refused to settle, declaring that the material had been ruined. She finally offered what seemed to her a just compromise, but this was refused by the dressmaker, who brought suit for the full amount.

About the time the suit was brought by the dressmaker another was brought against her by a gentleman. This was a suit of an entirely different sort—a matrimonial suit in fact—and the dressmaker promptly confessed judgment and named the day. It happened by an odd chance that Justice Savage, before whom the dress suit was to be tried, hit upon the same day that the lady had set for a much more agreeable undertaking, that of getting married. Both the ceremonies were set for yesterday morning. Something had to give way. The Court was immovable, so the lady had to apply for a continuance in the other case. It was postponed until evening. The trial began in the morning, and lasted through the day. The courtroom was filled with ladies, and a jury heard the evidence. Their decision was reached late in the afternoon, and was a verdict for the plaintiff, as prayed for.

Before the trial, in referring to the matter of the unexpected clash of her matrimonial and legal interests, the dressmaker remarked to the Court that this was the first time she ever had a lawsuit in her life.

"For that matter," she continued, "it is the first time I ever got married either. I guess, I can stand them both in one day."

A fine blush overspread the handsome features of the Court and he toyed with the papers on his desk as he said: "In that case you will enjoy quite a number of novel experiences in a very short space of time."

HIGGINS' HEAD.

The Secretary of the Chamber Shows a Large Intellect.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet this afternoon at their rooms on First street in regular monthly session. Several important matters will come up for action, such as the question of whether work had better be stopped on the Federal Building and the matter of the Arid Land Survey. There will probably be a large attendance.

The versatile Secretary of the organization, M. R. Higgins, has adopted a new device to induce the members to be a little more prompt in paying their monthly dues. On the postal cards which he sends out giving notice of the next regular meeting, he puts this remarkable statement:

"DEAR SIR—I regret to say thert there is ONE member of the Chamber who is delinquent in his dues. It is earnestly hoped that he will attend to it at once."

Mr. Higgins' theory is that as each member reads the notice he will be conscience-stricken to think that he is the only man who is not square in his accounts with the Chamber, and will rush off immediately and put up the desired amount. He says that a half-a-dozen men have already been in to inquire who the individual in question is and in case he has whispered confidentially in questioners' ear that he is the man.

NEWS FOR TRAVELERS.

Important Changes to be Made on the Santa Fe.

The officials of the Santa Fe Road are hard at work on a new timecard, which will go into effect shortly on all the California lines. The HERALD, yesterday, through the courtesy of one of the officials of the Phillips Block, was given a forecast of what the principal of the proposed changes will be:

An additional train will leave here every morning for San Bernardino at 8 o'clock, and will make all the local stops.

An additional train will leave San Bernardino for this city daily at 4:30 P. M. and will stop at all the way stations.

An additional train each way will also be run between San Bernardino and Los Angeles via Riverside and Orange.

The east-bound overland will leave San Diego at 2 A. M. instead of at 11 P. M., as at present and will arrive here at the same time (7 o'clock A. M.) as now. This is done so as to shorten the run for the trainmen, for eight hours are now given to the journey over the surf line, and it can easily be accomplished in five. The overland will not in the future make any local stops between here and San Bernardino, except at the most important points, this change being made so as to make a quicker service. The schedule will be ready for the public in a few days.

THE ORANGE CROP.

It Brought About $2,500,000 in the East.

The Santa Fe officials have been hard at work, lately, collecting figures regarding this season's orange harvest. The records show that Riverside has shipped 824 carloads, or about 250,000 boxes, and advices state that there will be about twenty-five carloads more from that part of the country. Anaheim has so far sent out 100 carloads, and Pasadena claims a record of 110 carloads. With what is to come it is now thought that the figures will reach a total of 2,200 carloads from this section or about 660,000 boxes. Riverside's 300,000 boxes were sold in Chicago for $1,000,000, and at these figures the total output represents about $2,500,000.

The Old Town Grows.

Anaheim never had a boom, but she gets there all the same. On Monday night an entertainment was held in Reiser's Opera House, the proceeds of which went to the Johnstown sufferers. The bill was well rendered by the local talent and delighted the big audience that filled the big hall into the corners. Mrs. H. N. Mitchell sang in her customary fine style and Jack Landell crowned his massive brow with new laurels. The proceeds came to about $100, which, with $58 subscribed by the citizens, makes quite a handsome sum for Anaheim to send.

There were shipped during the season just closed, from the two depots in Anaheim, no less than one hundred cars of oranges.

Conrad's big brewery is nearly completed, and will soon be set in motion. It is a solid brick structure covering a large area. From the S. P. depot it looms up grandly.

A great many people about Anaheim are experimenting in the matter of beet culture. The beets are doing excellently and promise well. Correspondence is being had with the Spreckels from time to time touching the matter, with a view to getting a factory established there. There is no section of the State where soils are generally so well adapted to this industry as Anaheim, and nowhere are there so large bodies of good land where the beets are sure to thrive. Not only Mr. Spreckels is looking at Anaheim with a view of placing a factory there, but Mr. Steele, of the American refinery, has his eyes turned in that direction, too.

They Beat the Record.

Car Master Donnatin, of the Southern Pacific, claims, and evidently with good reason, that he has as fine a set of men as can be found anywhere. Of late they have been testing how fast they can handle a freight train that passes through the yards. As this is the end of a division, it means testing the wheels, oiling up and trying the airbrakes, and heretofore the record for an ordinary freight train has been in the neighborhood of fifteen minutes. Mr. Donnatin's crew beat this easily enough and, yesterday, made a record that will probably hold for a long time to come. A special stock train, in a hurry, came in from Tustin bound for the North, and the boys went to work under the eye of a time-keeper. They had their work done and the train started again in seven minutes.

More Accommodations.

The accomodations at the Wolfskill depot are scarcely sufficient for the many requirements, and carpenters are hard at work making the needed additions. They are to be made at the south end of the yards, and will include outhouses for the dining-room, an ice-house, and a storeroom for Car-master Donnoatin's appliances.

Another N. S. G. W.

Mr. W. A. Goodrich, the late manager of the St. Nicholas Hotel, and now in charge of the Rossmore, wears a 2 by 4 smile on his face now-a-days. The cause of his joyful appearance is the arrival of a strapping nine-pound boy, who made his debut on Monday afternoon. The little fellow is in excellent health, as is also his mother.

The Hotel Arcadia.

The finest seaside hotel in Los Angeles county opens for the season Saturday next, June 15th.

The best regulator of the digestive organs, also best appetizer known, is Angostura Bitters, the genuine of Dr. J. G.B. Siegert & Sons. At all druggists.

An Indolent Organ.

When the liver is indolent, as it must necessarily be when it fails to secrete the bile in sufficient quantities to meet the requirements of digestion and evacuation, it should be set at work with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The healthful stimulus to activity imparted by this incomparable alterative, speedsly evinces itself in a departure of the uncomfortable sensations in the right side; the nausea; fur upon the tongue; indigestion, and sick headache consequent upon inactivity of the liver and the diversion of the bile from its proper channel. Irregularity of the bowels is always and painlessly reformed by the corrective indicated, which is infinitely to be preferred, both because it is safe and more efficacious, to blue pill, calomel and drenching purgatives of every class. It cures and prevents fever and ague, and rheumatism.

California Cat-R-Cure.

The only guaranteed cure for catarrh, cold in the head, hay fever, rose cold, catarrhal deafness and sore eyes. Restore the sense of taste and unpleasant breath, resulting from catarrh. The Supervisors.

TUESDAY, June 11, 1889.

The Board of Supervisors met to-day in adjourned session, all the members present.

G. C. Brown was appointed director for precinct No. 1 of Anaheim Irrigation District, P. S. Yorba having failed to qualify.

The request of the Recorder for the usual number of deputies for this month was allowed, with the request that the number be reduced next month.

The deed to the gravel bed in Tustin was approved and a warrant for $50 ordered issued in favor of Littlefield.

F. H. Clark and R. F. A. Mollineaux were chosen members of the Board of Education.

A petition for a change of boundaries in the Alameda and Clearwater School Districts was granted.

The clerk was instructed to notify the District Clerk of Long Beach, in accordance with opinion of District Attorney, that the papers relative to the special tax were insufficient.

A communication from C. C. Twitchell, Justice of the Peace of Santa Monica, was received and ordered filed.

Chairman Perry and Supervisor Davis were appointed a committee to attend to the plumbing of the new building on the County Farm.

Adjourned.

PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

A Positive Cure for every Skin, Scalp, and Blood Disease except Ichthyosis.

Psoriasis 8 years. Head, arms, and breast a solid scab. Back covered with sores. Best doctors and medicines fail. Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $3.75.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with the best results. I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. It would get better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab, and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and, I began to think, incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSEL, Deshler, Ohio.

Skin Disease 6 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success, and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines and two of the best doctors in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your remedies.
MRS. A. MCCLAFLIN, Morette, Mo.

The Worst Case of Scrofula Cured.

We have been selling your CUTICURA REMEDIES for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of Scrofula I ever saw was cured by the use of five bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA, and CUTICURA SOAP.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1889.

THE HERALD has received a very full report through the Associated Press of the mineral productions of the United States. In many sections this exhibit will be of great importance and valuable reading. But as it is very extended, and would occupy to print it all nearly a page of the HERALD, and as it is not of great interest in this section, it is reserved for condensation at a future time.

THE shipment of oranges from this and San Bernardino counties this year has amounted to twenty-two hundred carloads. The crop sold for about $2,500,000, which represents quite an increase over last year. The number of carloads shipped last year was 1,500, representing a value of about one and a half million dollars. The crop next year will show a very marked increase over this year's. The scale is now being disposed of rapidly, and the trees will recover their normal vigor and bear as abundantly as they used to do. With the augmented number of new trees coming into bearing, and the increase in the production of the old trees, we may confidently look for a crop twice as large as that we have had this year. The orange will, from this time forth, reassert itself as our leading revenue-producing staple.

THE death of Tavernier, the painter, ends the career of an artist who posessed a genius for the faithful production of western scenery. In his painting of Mauna Loa he gave in very vivid colors a striking picture of the fiery crater of that wonderful volcano. The natives call the seething abyss "Pele," equivalent to our word Hell, and it is appropriately named. Tavernier doubtless kept this in his mind when he was painting it, and produced a scene that would fit well with the idea. Some of Tavernier's best work he produced from Arizona sketches. As an artist he had breadth, vigor, technique, simplicity of treatment and the freedom of handling of the French school. In this respect he was the Jules Verne of painters. He will be a great loss to art on this Coast.

THE Bar Association of Los Angeles have unanimously recommended Judge Walter Van Dyke for the vacancy on the bench of the Supreme Court, created by the resignation of Judge Jackson Temple. As far as a Democratic journal is entitled to put in, the HERALD heartily seconds the recommendation which unquestionably resulted from an appreciation of the personal worth and exceptional qualifications of Judge Van Dyke, in this case absolutely irrespective of politics. During his career at the bar, as a member of the firm of Wells, Van Dyke & Lee, and in his short career here on the Superior bench, the nominee of the Bar Association has won golden opinions. As the Republican party is to have a member of this august tribunal, by appointment, Governor Waterman cannot go wrong in heeding this recommendation of the Los Angeles bar. Van Dyke is able, capable and experienced. The claims of Los Angeles county are strong in themselves, and are reinforced by the character of her accredited representative.

OAKLAND is now in the throes of a prohibition contest. For to this really amounts the almost restrictive license sought to be placed on the retailing of liquors.' One little scintilla of reason shines through the gloom of this benighted policy, that is, a proposition to free native wines and beers from this narrowly restrictive regime. What ever force there may be in the stock arguments usually indulged in against the sale of beverages carrying a high degree of alcohol, their force falls short of the mark when aimed at a restriction of the sale of pure light wines and beers. The true missionary spirit which will eventually redeem the people from the curse of gross intemperance, will be one that will not only tolerate, but one that will actively encourage the production, sale and consumption of these lighter beverages. And this is not indulging in theory when we say that. It is the most practical of wisdom founded on universal experience wherever light wines and beers are freely consumed. No people are so temperate as those who are accustomed to a free use of claret and hock wines and lager beers. They carry less alcohal than cider, and much less than the temperance stomach bitters. These beverages too are products of our own soil. The barley, hops and grapes that enter with their composition all grow under California skies, and their use enriches the farmers of the State.

A Standing Peril to Investors.

The San Francisco News-Letter has often done a good office in protecting British investors from disastrous experiences. In its issue of the 8th inst., it applies itself to exploding that ever present humbug, the International Company of Mexico, and its good offices ought not to be confined to Englishmen. The HERALD has been at great pains to save the investing moth from the Lower California candle. It is at a loss to know how and why it is that Eastern people with money will pass by legitimate and remunerative fields of investment to hunt after an ignis fatuus. There are better placer and quartz mines, a hundred times over, within sixty miles of Los Angeles than can be found within two hundred and fifty miles of the American line in Southern California, and yet simply because the expense of exploiting these Lower California frauds is, at least, ten times that of the more eligible propositions in the territory, and under the laws of the United States, to say nothing of the irksome disabilities of the Mexican mining statutes, certain addle-pated persons show a disposition to crowd below the line. This tendency reached the stage of madness of a March hare in the Santa Clara infamy, a Jeremy Diddler proposition created and fostered by the International Company in Mexico. Speaking of the operations of this predacious company, the News-Letter says:

The proposition springing from interested sources, in Mexico, to cede Lower California to the United States is one of those deeply laid lines which generally are found, on investigation, leading to the nucleus of some weak-kneed enterprise, which needs bracing up in every direction. The International Company of Mexico, in this instance, would undoubtedly wish the outside world to credit the absurd rumor, trusting that thereby sufficient confidence would be created to enable them to fasten a white elephant on unsuspecting investors. Unfortunately, however, the people of America are possessed of too much common sense to accept this Greek-bearing gift, having now within their own borders enough land, and to spare, capable of supporting those who live on it. Something more than a mere increase of territory is desired, even if offered for a song, especially when the grant includes little outside of barren and cactus-covered plains, tenanted alone with innumerable hosts of horned-toads and deadly vipers. America has no use for Lower California on any terms. The mineral discoveries are only treated as lying reports, faked up by an unscrupulous corporation, and it is well known that the fertile spots on the line are so firmly established as private property, that even the Mexican Government was foiled in an attempt to oust the owners in the interests of alien land grabbers.

Our San Francisco contemporary has evidently kept a vigilant eye on the "walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly," tactics of the moral agriculturists who are running the ingenious "fakes" which are constantly being heralded from the Lower California region, and mainly by the International Company. It seeks to protect the British investor; the HERALD aims to protect honest men of all nationalities. It rounds up its warning as follows:

The fact of the matter is that the International Company of Mexico bit off more than it could conveniently get away with when it put up this scheme to fleece the universe. Misfortune has attended every step. The colony scheme was a failure, and the few who did get involved in the meshes have used their tongues to such advantage that the world has little more to learn of horrors attached to a life in a spot, about the only one in creation of which it might be truthfully said that aught but man is vile. Agents have only been appointed to inaugurate litigation, even the very survey having ended in the courts on the question of stolen plans. Steamship companies, mining and chemical schemes have all, in turn, been added as attractions, which, it was hoped, would turn the tide of population thither, and all are, as yet, in the initiatory stages, awaiting the fool and his sack of gold. An English Company was formed some months ago to bear the burden, but it fizzled out in spite of the appointment of an officer in the Engineers as resident manager to give tone to the enterprise. Now, however, the final coup is at hand, and a syndicate has blossomed out in London, with the avowed intention of fathering all the mistakes of American sharpers. Each and every subsidiary company on the Peninsula is to be turned over, if sufficient dupes can be found with the necessary £10 notes to take stock in the scheme, and it is to this end that the rumors of annexation are bruited around, in an endeavor to use the name of the United States as a cat's-paw.

The British investor, before he seriously entertains this proposition, will do well to refer to the description given by Dickens of the "Eden Land Scheme," and take warning from the fate of the hero of that tale.

There are several plights in which a man or an investor is not only without pity but without hope. One is what is known in theology as the sin against the Holy Ghost, and another is judicial blindness. The man who is ass enough to part with his money to a lot of Lower California sharpers would seem to have brought himself within the melancholy prism of both crimes. We are glad to welcome the News-Letter to missionary work in this line. If the man who makes two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before is a public benefactor, the man who saves the waste of good money ought to come in somewhere in the line of doing good to his fellows.

THE Republican party is steadily drifting to the rear. At the last national election the sentiment of the people was overwhelmingly Democratic, but Mr. Cleveland had made his accidental ascendancy in the Democratic party so redolent of the "Big Head," he had failed so essentially and inexcusably to come up to Jacksonian Democratic standards, he had so paltered with the outright and masculine Democracy, and so ko-towed to the George William Curtis, Man-Milliner element of the Republican party, that the square-toed white men of the Empire State declined to vote for him. And they didn't vote for him, seven thousand strong. But it is now well understood that the Democracy next time will have a Simon-pure, original Jacob sort of dyed-in-the-wool Democrat for a leader—twenty to one it is David Bennett Hill—and the party is again taking heart. In Norwich, Connecticut, on the 3rd instant, a Democratic Mayor was elected by 300 majority—the first time a Democrat was ever elected to that office in the history of that city. All the Democratic party needs is a Democrat to lead them—a Simon-pure Democrat, who thinks that a Democratic victory means the ascendancy of Democratic men and measures, and the earth will shake with the multitudinousness of the tread of the Democratic hosts. Of course this means that Mr. Henry J. Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, will no longer carry the Democratic party in his vest pocket to wreck it; and it will give the accomplished Senator Gorman, of Maryland, a chance to assist in framing the Democratic platform. Harrison and nepotism, nepotism and Harrison, are going to be bowled out at the next Presidential election, and it will be done under a platform very similar to that under which Mr. Cleveland was elected in 1884; and which, strange to say, was dictated, in all its essential provisions, by Mr. Samuel J. Randall and Senator Gorman. In that platform there will be a clamorous demand for a reduction of the war tariff and for a full recognition of the necessity of protecting American industries just to the extent that will insure domestic manufacturers from foreign competition, and give the American workingman his highest possible wage. Such a platform, without free wool, and with Mr. Bland, of Missouri, to write the silver plank, would give us California by ten thousand majority.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mattie Vickers at the Los Angeles Theater.

Miss Mattie Vickers is drawing good sized audiences, and her satire Jacquine or Paste and Diamonds seems to have "caught on." Her support is good and the lines of the piece are bright. Miss Vickers herself gives a life to the performance that makes it take with the people.

"The Ivy Leaf."

On Monday evening next, W. H. Power's company begin an engagement of one week at the Grand Opera House, presenting for the first three nights The Ivy Leaf, and the last three The Fairy's Well. Both plays are picturesque Irish dramas depicting the brighter phases of life in the "Emerald Isle." A carload of scenery will be used to illustrate both plays, and the company will be unusually strong. Incidental songs, characteristic dances and All-Hollowe'en games will be introduced, and a genuine Irish bag-piper will play solos on Irish pipes. On Thursday evening the company will give a benefit to Manager Wyatt.

Potter-Reynolds.

Last Tuesday evening, at the residence of the bride, Miss A. M. Reynolds was united in wedlock to Mr. C. W. Potter. Dr. Kiruzle officiated. There were a number of friends present, and the presents were numerous and costly. Miss Eda Hartly made a beautiful bridesmaid, and Mr. C. H. Moye acted as groomsman. Among those present were: Miss May Wolfe, Miss Fannie Cocke, Mrs. J. H. Reynolds, Katie Santry, Mollie McGill, Ida Hartley, Della Rudesill, Fannie Rudesill, Horace Bell, W. C. Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. L. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. L. Leroy, Mr. and Mrs. Nevell, Mrs. D. E. Scott, Miss B. Reynolds, Gracie Potter, L. Reynolds, J. L. Mansfield, E. McHain, Jas. Simenton.

To Close at Noon.

By reference to another column, it will be seen that all the banks in the city have agreed to close their doors at noon on Saturdays, beginning July 6th. This movement has been on foot for some time, but the arrangement has just been made. This rule is the custom in other large cities, where it has been found to work no hardship on anybody.

Undelivered Telegrams.

The following telegrams remain at the Western Union Telegraph Office, 6 Court street, June 11th: Mrs. M. F. Kimball (Nadeau Cal.), W. E. Hingston, Miss Sarah McCray, Hyder Griffin Co.

Trouble Brewing for the Swiss.

BERLIN, June 11.—The government has notified the Swiss authorities that it cannot possibly agree to the proposal they made to the settlement of questions arising from expulsions from Switzerland of Herr Wolgomuth, the German Police Inspector, who was charged with bribing a Swiss to act as agent provocateur. It has also informed them that Germany reserves the right to take action.

They Don't Admit It.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Henry Clews has received a letter from Gladstone, in which the latter says that the Palmerston Cabinet never dealt with the subject of recognizing the Southern Confederacy, except to the extent of promptly and unanimously rejecting the overture of Louis Napoleon looking to a recognition.

The Indians Signing Rapidly.

ROSEBUD, Dak., June 11.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon 1,020 Indians had signed. Intelligence from other agencies indicates that success here probably insures a favorable result at all the others. There seems to be a general impression that, practically, the only opposition will be made at Standing Rock.

Blaine Not to Blame.

BERLIN, June 11.—The statement that the delay on the part of Blaine, the American Secretary of State, in authorizing the American Commissioners to sign the treaty, is due to the question of allowing the Germans' claim to an indemnity, is semi-officially denied here.

A Fatal Jump.

IRONWOOD, Mich., June 11.—William Atkinson, a wealthy and prominent citizen, committed suicide today by jumping into the shaft of the Ashland mine. His mangled body was found at the bottom of the 400-foot shaft. No cause is assigned.

Apaches in Their Paint.

TUCSON, June 11.—It is reported that two white men were killed in the Sierra Madre mountains, 150 miles south of Hermosillo, Mexico, by Apache Indians. Four Indians were seen, but the band is thought to be large.

California Fruit Sales.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Porter Brothers Company, the agents for the California Fruit Union, sold, to-day, a carload of peaches, apricots and plums. The peaches sold at $1.85 to $1.80, apricots $1.75 to $1.30, plums $1.10. Demand only fair.

CRONIN'S MURDER.

The Testimony Taken Before the Coroner.

SULLIVAN IS ARRESTED

And Conveyed to a Cell in Murderers' Row.

TEXT OF THE JURY'S VERDICT.

Sweeping Condemnation of the Methods of the Clan-Na-Gael—Arrests Made in New York.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

CHICAGO, June 11.—In the Cronin inquest this morning John C. Garrity, a saloon keeper, testified that Detective Coughlin tried to hire a tough character known as "Major Sampson," to slug Dr. Cronin. He wanted him slugged with a baseball bat and disfigured for life. If it killed him it would not make much difference.

J. D. Haggerty, a railroad clerk, gave testimony. After the trial of Dr. Cronin, he said Alexander Sullivan told him Cronin was a scoundrel and a menace to the Irish cause. It was the impression of witness that Sullivan said Cronin should be exterminated. Witness was of the same opinion at that time.

Le Caron, who was a friend of Alexander Sullivan, was a member of the committee which tried Cronin. He was introduced to the witness by Sullivan at the trial as a man worthy of confidence in the Irish cause.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Acting upon instructions from Chicago, Police Inspector Byrnes to-day caused the arrest of John Maroney and Charles McDonald, two men whom he has been shadowing for suspected complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin. Maroney is 38 years old and claims to be in the dry goods business. McDonald is the same age.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The police say that the men arrested in New York are not important.

AFTERNOON PROCEEDINGS.

CHICAGO, June 11.—At the afternoon session of the Cronin inquest, to-day, a number of witnesses were examined without developing anything of importance. Then Chief of Police Hubbard was sworn and he told of an interview which he had had with Woodruff, the horse thief. Hubbard was asked if he was the one who drove the trunk from the Carlson cottage. Woodruff said he was, and then described the cottage.

WOODRUFF'S ADMISSIONS.

"He said," continued the Chief, that he took the trunk about May 4th. He had been given $25 by two men the day before to do the job. At 11:30, on May 4th, two men, according to agreement, rapped on the door of Dinan's stable. He opened the door and let out a horse, with rags on its feet, and hitched it to a wagon. They then drove to within a hundred feet of the Carlson cottage. He was then told to wait, and the two men left him and went into the cottage. They remained there five minutes, and then beckoned him to drive up. He did so and the two, King and Fairburn, and a third man came out with a heavy trunk. The third man was P. O. Sullivan. When the trunk was put in the wagon Sullivan returned to the house. Woodruff with King and Fairburn drove on Lincoln avenue to Fullerton avenue, and thence to Lincoln Park. The men intended to take the trunk and its contents into a boat out on the lake and sink them, but owing to the bright night and the presence of strangers they changed their minds and drove back. When they reached the man-catch-hole at Sixty-ninth street, they tried to dump the trunk into it, but failing, they kicked the trunk open, having lost the key, took the body from it and threw it into the hole. Woodruff was then told to drive off."

CRONIN'S PRIVATE PAPERS.

The Chief then produced private papers of Dr. Cronin's which were turned over to him by saloon-keeper Conklin, with whom Cronin lived. Conklin identified them as being in the hand-writing of Dr. Cronin, and the Coroner read the documents to the jury. It was decided by the jury that the names of the parties mentioned in the documents should not be made public, except those already brought into the case.

The first paper was a telegram from J. D. McMahon, calling on the doctor to meet him at the Windsor Hotel, New York, by order of the Committee, on January 18, 1888. There was another telegram from J. H. Ronayne, calling for the doctor's report on the Sullivan trial. To this the doctor replied, as a copy of his lettler showed, that he would vote again as he had voted at the trial.

Then the Coroner read the minority report of the Trial Committee, dated Philadelphia, January 15, 1889, and signed by J. H. McCahey and P. H. Cronin. The report blames Alexander Sullivan for neglecting the family of Mackey Lamasey, scores Sullivan, Boland and Feely for excluding C. H. McCarthy from the Boston Convention, and also for excluding a delegate of the home organization from the same place. It was alleged that the report of the Boston Convention showed a deficit of $13,000 at the instance of Sullivan, when there really was a balance; that $111,000 was improperly spent and not accounted for by "The Triangle," that the men sent to England on "Missions" were not sufficiently supplied with money, and that the agent of "The Triangle" was responsible for this; that $87,191 was drawn from the Treasury for "active work" but was not used for that purpose by "The Triangle," but, with the surplus money, was in the hands of "The Triangle's" agent. This report was signed by McCahey and Cronin, with a recommendation that it be printed and sent to each camp. The Coroner then read Dr. Cronin's notes taken at the trial. The objections Alexander Sullivan made to Dr. Cronin's sitting on the committee are stated at large and also that they were overruled by the votes of Burns, Rogers, McCahey and Cronin.

THE MISSIONS TO ENGLAND.

One witness testified that he was sent to England to do active work, and was given £4 and a steerage ticket. He came back by a steerage passage, without bedclothes or other necessaries. He slept, he said, on the soft side of a plank. He went again, and was told to get some one to help him. John J. Maroney was one of the men who was to help him. He was given $200, and when he got to England did not get any more. He did not use the alias given him by "The Triangle," and the intimation in his evidence is that this was what saved him from falling into the hands of the English authorities. He and his partner "performed four operations." The trouble in the Pittsburg Convention was told about. An objection was made to Tim Crean and Florence Sullivan being seated as proxies for Father Dorcy and Alexander Sullivan.

THE JURY SATISFIED.

After reading the evidence the jury were asked if they wanted to hear any more witnesses, the Coroner saying that he had plenty of witnesses who could give "corroborating evidence." The jury did not want to hear any more, and at 4:40 o'clock, retired for deliberation to the Coroner's office. At 6 o'clock the jury sent out for supper, which was brought in to them.

At 9:45 P. M. the jury were still in secret session. State's Attorney Longenecker had been sent for twice. He stated on coming out of the jury-room that the jury had decided to hold Alexander Sullivan and several others, but that the names of the others had not been decided on.

At 10:85 the Coronor's jury brought in Their verdict, the feature of it being the recommendation that Alexander Sullivan be held, also three others under arrest. At 10:30, officers were dispatched to Sullivan's residence to arrest him.

At 10:15 P. M., after being out five hours and a half, the jury came into court and commenced reading their verdict. It was a long document, but was listened to with marked attention.

THE VERDICT OF THE JURY.

The following is the full text of the verdict of the Coroner's jury:

"We, the undersigned jury, appointed to make inquiries, according to law, as to how the man, whose body was viewed by us, came to his death, find:

First. That the body is that of Patrick H. Cronin, known as Doctor Cronin.

Second. That his death was not from natural causes, but from violent means.

Third. That said P. H. Cronin was decoyed from his home, on North Clark street, on the evening of May 4, 1889, by some person or persons, to a cottage known as the Carlson cottage, situated at No. 1872 North Ashland avenue, in Lakeview, Cook county, Illinois.

Fourth. That at said cottage, said Cronin was murdered by being beaten on the head with some blunt instrument or instruments, in the hands or some person or persons unknown to us, on the night of said May 4th, or between May 4th or May 5th, 1889.

Fifth. That the body, after said murder was committed, was placed in a trunk and carried to Edgewater on a wagon by several persons, and by them placed in the catch basin at the corner of Evanston avenue and Fifty ninth street, Lake View, where it was discovered on May 27, 1889.

Sixth. That the evidence shows conclusively to all minds that a plot or conspiracy was formed by a number of persons for the purpose of murdering said Cronin and concealing his body, and that said plot, or conspiracy, was deliberately contrived and cruelly executed.

Seventh. We have carefully inquired into the relations sustained by said Cronin to other persons while alive, to ascertain if he had any enemies or quarrels with any persons sufficient to cause his murder.

Eighth. It is our judgment that no other person or persons, except some of those who are or who had been members of a certain secret society, known as the "United Brotherhood," or Clan-Na-Gael, had cause to be instigators or executors of such plot or conspiracy to murder said Cronin.

Ninth. Many of the witnesses testifying in said case have done so with much unwillingness and, we believe, with much mental reservation. We find from the evidence that a number of persons were parties to the plot and conspiracy to murder said Cronin, and that Daniel Coughlin, Patrick O'Sullivan, Alexander Sullivan and one Woodruff, alias Black, were either principals, accessaries, or had guilty knowledge of the said plot and conspiracy to murder said Cronin and conceal his body, and should be held to answer to the Grand Jury. We also believe that other persons were engaged in this plot, or had guilty knowledge of it, and should be apprehended and held to the Grand Jury.

We further state that this plot, or conspiracy, in its conception and execution, is one of the most foul and brutal that has ever come to our knowledge, and we recommend that the proper authorities offer a large reward for the discovery and apprehension of all those engaged in it in any way

We further state that, in our judgment, all secret societies whose objects are such as the evidence shows that of "Clan-na-Gael" or "United Brotherhood" to be, are not in harmony with, and are injurious to American institutions. We hope that future vigor and vigilance by the police force will more than compensate for past negligence by a portion of the force in this case."

SULLIVAN ARRESTED.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Alexander Sullivan's arrest was effected without the slightest trouble. Before the verdict was read in public, Coroner Hertz emerged for a moment from the room in which the jury was in session. He beckoned to an officer, and handed him a mittimus. The officer, with a comrade, hurriedly left the city hall, and jumping into a carriage drove straight to the residence of Mr. Sullivan, on Oak street. The officers went to the front door and rang the bell. Henry Brown, Mr. Sullivan's clerk, answered the call. "Is Mr. Sullivan at home?" asked one of the officers. "He is," was the urbane reply, "but he has just retired." "We are policemen, and have a mittimus for his arrest," rejoined the officer, whose name is Henry Palmer. "All right; come in, gentlemen. I will call him," said Mr. Brown.

Officer Palmer and his comrade stepped inside, while another policeman, who had put in an appearance, descended the steps and ran around the block to the rear of the house. Before three minutes had passed, no less than half-a-dozen vehicles had been driven up to the curb near the house, and the sidewalk contained more than a score of men. Mr. Brown lighted the gas in the parlor and invited the officers to take seats. Mr. Sullivan evidently had heard part of the conversation between Brown and the officers, for, a moment later, he thrust his head over the balustrade on the second floor and said: "All right. I'll dress and come down." He soon appeared on the stairway dressed in his ordinary street dress. Descending to the parlor he recognized officer Palmer, whom he had known for years, and, extending his hand, said: "Why, how are you, Palmer? You want me, do you?" "Yes," said Palmer, "I have a mittimus for you. I suppose, though, you are not greatly surprised?" "Well, slightly—at this hour. I was just retiring. Will you not remain in the house all night rather than go to the jail?" "No," said Palmer, "I have not authority to do so." "All right, Palmer, I'll go with you," said Mr. Sullivan, cheerfully. Then Mr. Sullivan walked to the rear of a hallway where a female figure could be dimly seen behind the portieres. Placing his arm tenderly around the woman's waist Mr. Sullivan kissed her and then took up his hat, saying: "Now I am ready." The street door opened and Mr. Brown stepped out first, followed by Officer Palmer. Next came Mr. Sullivan, followed by Officer Broderick. Sullivan followed the officers with a firm tread. His hat was set back slightly on his head, giving a clear view of his smooth-shaven face and clear open eyes. On reaching the sidewalk, Brown took the attorney's arm and entered the carriage with the officers.

By this time the occupants of the adjoining houses and those across the street were awakened and a dozen windows opened. Little groups of men and women assembled on the sidewalk and had scarcely assembled when their sight-seeing was ended by the carriage quickly rolling away to the jail, scarcely a mile distant.

The prisoner's demeanor was calm throughout the entire proceedings. Having arrived at the office of the County Jail, and after the usual preliminaries, Mr. Sullivan was taken through the cage into the gloomy prison itself. The ex-President of the Irish National League in America was then immediately incarcerated in cell No. 25 in the tier known as "murderers' row."

A VERY FRESH REPORTER.

At the jail office Mr. Sullivan had a pleasant meed of recognition from Night Jailer Currier and such of the newspaper men as he knew, but one ill-mannered reporter confronted him with a great roll of note paper, and demanded:

"What have you to say?"

"I will say my say in court," was the answer.

When further pressed by the same individual, Mr. Sullivan said: "Please have the decency to let me alone." A moment later the prisoner was conveyed through the iron doorway into the silent cellroom, and going in, pleasantly bade the bystanders a general "Good-night."

FLITTING "SHADOWS."

The only incident at the Sullivan residence after the carriage had driven away was, that half a dozen disconsolate individuals who had been posted in dark corners, completely surrounding the house, were seen to come out of their hiding-places and quickly disappear from the neighborhood. They were the "Shadows" who have dogged every step of Sullivan for weeks past, and their work was now at an end.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT OF THE ARREST.

The Daily News' report of the arrest says: "Mr. Sullivan exhibited no impatience or chagrin at officer Palmer's refusal of his request to remain at the house over night. 'I give you credit, Mr. Sullivan, for being a very cool man,' said a veteran detective in a subsequent conversation. 'Well,' said Sullivan, 'a man with a clear conscience need never worry, and I know of no wrong I have done.' Then he donned his overcoat and hat and led his captors from the house."

IT WAS HIS HOUSEKEEPER.

The Daily News says that the woman who appeared at the head of the stairs leading to the basement was Sullivan's old housekeeper, who was in a state of great trepidation. Sullivan hastened over to her, and after saying a few words to her, kissed her good-bye.

ARE THE ARRESTS IMPORTANT?

CHICAGO, June 11.—Chief of Police Hubbard was asked, in regard to the grounds on which McDonald and Maroney were arrested in New York today on suspicion of being concerned in the Cronin murder. With regard to the man, McDonald, who seems to be the more important of the two prisoners, Hubbard said: "We attach no importance to the arrest, as all the fellow had to do with the case, so far as we know, is that he is a New York crook, and was absent from New York at the time of the murder and we think he was here, but we don't know yet. I cannot, or will not, tell where he was on May 4th, but that does not prove that he murdered Cronin or had anything to do with the crime."

"It is learned that the Carlsons can identify McDonald as the man who rented the cottage."

"Bah! Sheer nonsense."

"And that he was, in all probability, the man who drove the Doctor away."

The Chief's reply, though inelegant, was expressive—"Rats."

Luke Dillon, of Philadelphia, on whose information the arrest was made, declined to say what the grounds of the arrest were.

THE GROUNDS OF SUSPICION.

State's Attorney Longenecker would talk, however, if Dillon would not. "The men are arrested, and there is nothing to conceal now. Maroney is the man who is suspected of driving the doctor from his office to the Carlson cottage. About the other man I don't know much, but we expect to prove that he was in the conspiracy. Maroney is a laborer, I think, and McDonald is a blacksmith. I got this information from Dillon, and we will learn how much truth there is in it later on."

SPECIAL GRAND JURY CALLED.

CHICAGO, June 11.—This afternoon Judge Shepard ordered a special venire to issue for twenty-three "good and worthy men" to act as grand jurors. The proceedings leading up to this result were very brief. The Assistant States Attorney secured the attention of the Judge, and stated that he had been instructed by his superior, Mr. Longenecker, to ask for the calling of a special grand jury. Nothing further was said. The order was at once made out and taken to Sheriff Matteon. The juror's will be impanelled in Judge Shepard's court to-morrow morning.

The Assistant States Attorney said to a reporter that the special grand jury was summoned in order that there might be no delay between the ending of the coroner's inquest and the commencement of the grand jury proceedings in the Cronin case.

PROBABLY THE WILLIAMS BROTHERS.

CHICAGO, June 11.—To-night information was derived from detective sources that J. J. Maroney, who was arrested in New York to-day, is a member of the Clan-Na-Gael Executive, that is to say, of the committee which governs the whole organization, and of which Luke Dillon is a member. Maroney disclaims having been identified by a salesman as the man who purchased the furniture which first went to Clark street and afterwards to the Carlson cottage. The identification is represented as having been from a cabinet photograph of Maroney. This same Maroney is claimed, also, to have been identified as the person who rented the cottage. McDonald, the other New Yorker, was his companion. Parties have been found, it is asserted, who will swear that Maroney and McDonald are the men who posted a letter at Hammond the day after the tragedy, telling Carlson that the rent would be still forthcoming. Maroney wrote the letter, it is alleged, and McDonald was seen to leave the train and post it. In fact, the story in a nutshell is, that Maroney and McDonald were the two mysterious "Williams Brothers," popularly credited with being the actual person's who took Cronin's life.

WHO THEY ARE.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The man Maroney is John D. Maroney, a dry goods merchant. He has been a prominent figure in Irish affairs for many years, especially in the Land League. He has often spoken publicly against the use of violence in behalf of Ireland. Very little is known of McDonald. Both prisoners were taken before Inspector Byrnes this afternoon. They said they had never been to Chicago or its vicinity. They admitted that they were members of the Clan-na-Gael. Immediately after the prisoners' arrest they were taken to the Tombs Police Court. The prisoners will be held for murder in accordance with instructions given to Inspector Byrnes from Chicago.

An evening paper prints this of Ma-roney: "He resided once in Philadelphia, but he was eventually compelled to leave that city, and since that time has been understood to have performed missions of a private nature in connection with Clan-na-Gael. On the occasion of the Queen's Jubilee, a few years ago, Maroney was one of a number of men who went to England with the funds of the revolutionary organization for the avowed purpose of blowing up several public buildings. Maroney blew up nothing, and his two companions were arrested.

Maroney has never had any regular business, but has been generously supplied with money. One of the charges made against Sullivan's administration was that $700 of the funds of the Clan-na-Gael went into the men's furnishing business which Maroney carried on in Philadelphia, and in which he failed. Maroney was one of the men who, before Cronin's body was found in the sewer, was most pronounced in his opinion that the Doctor had not met with foul play, but left Chicago to avoid the disgrace resulting from scandal, with which he was professionally connected.

TWO MORE ARRESTS.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Another arrest was made at 7:30 to-night in connection with the Cronin mystery. The police authorities are reticent and would only say that the prisoner was arrested on suspicion of being another important person in the case. A mysterious prisoner was locked up at police headquarters by Inspector Byrnes' detectives to-night, at 8 o'clock, who is supposed to be another man to be credited to the arrest list in the Cronin murder. The man was hustled into the building by a back entrance and locked up. His name is withheld.

HUNTING UP EVIDENCE.

NEGUNEE, Mich., June 11.—Ex-Captain Shaack and Officer West arrived at noon, and are now awaiting for the train to take them to Hancock. It is supposed that they are going there to get evidence in the Cronin affair, Hancock being Coughlin's home.

CLAN NA-GAEL'S AGENT WALSH.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The Herald of today will advance the theory that John Walsh, sometimes known as John Hanley, the famous "Invincible," had a hand in the murder, and that the assassination was ordered from across the water. Walsh was in Chicago several weeks prior to the murder of Dr. Cronin. He was seen here at various times until the middle of February. He said nothing of his business. Walsh, accompanied by Philip McCarthy, of Chicago, aided in the escape of the Fenians from Australia in the Catalpa, in 1867. Walsh was selected for this dangerous task because of his great strength and iron nerve. When he returned to America he became possessed with the idea that the Irishmen of the world owed him a living, and acted accordingly. From that time to the present he has done no manual work. Walsh is an athlete. Though nearly 50 years of age, he does not look to be more than 35. He stands 5 feet 11 inches in height, and can handle an ordinary man with the greatest of ease. Walsh was the trusted agent of the "Invincibles," and was assigned by them to perform dangerous work. He made six trips to England. When the Clan-na-Gael passed into the hands of the famous "Triangle," Walsh was pressed into their service, acting, it is said, under their direction. Walsh made a protracted visit to Ireland and England, returning with valuable information. While there he went by the name of John Hanley. There is no record of Walsh's work for the "Triangle" in the United States, but there are numerous stories which associate his name with the disappearance of many men.

DIGGING IN DEBRIS.

Exhuming the Bodies of the Dead In Conemaugh.

THE STATE TO TAKE CONTROL.

Isolated Cases of Disease Developed Generous Relief Being Extended.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 11.—This is the last day for the clearing away of the effects of the flood by the civil authorities. To-morrow the State takes hold of the stupendous work. The horror of the situation has not diminished, but rather grows. The search for the dead continues, and in all sections and directions dead are being found.

Numbers of bodies are now coming to the surface of the water, and competent judges say that as many more bodies as have been found are lying somewhere. In many unexpected places bodies are hourly being found. When this will end no human mind can guess. The day opened rainy, but as it advanced the sun came out and the morning hours were hot and muggy. Many workmen are leaving because they will not work for $1.50 a day, which the State proposes to pay. It is believed there will be a temporary stopping of work on this account.

CHANGE IN THE CONTROL OF THE TOWN.

The impending change in the control of the town, the exodus of workmen and flood survivors, and the steady rain have combined to make Johnstown quiet to-day. At all quarters the work has been narrowed down to the finest possible calibre, and a good many faithful men are getting the rest the needed long ago. Tomorrow Mr. Scott throws down the reins of government, and Adjutant-General Hastings takes hold. At least a hundred thousand dollars will be paid out to the workmen tomorrow morning, and the majority of it will leave town with the men who earned it. The new leaders claim to have a number of plans to introduce, by which the work of clearing up the wreckage and caring for the survivors will be greatly systematized and simplified. The military will be retained.

CLEANING THE RIVER CHANNEL.

Good progress was made in cleaning out the channel of the Conemaugh above the bridge to-day, a number of stationary engines and long cables being used to pull out the heavy timbers. The morgues are about to be abandoned on account of the bad condition of the bodies that are being recovered. Identification is almost impossible unless by the personal effects found upon the body. The State Board of Health still issues encouraging bulletins, although isolated cases of pneumonia, diphtheria and measles are reported, generally from the suburbs.

REGAINING THEIR COURAGE.

The spirit of recovery took firm hold on Johnstown's citizens to-day. Everywhere owners of property were hard at work clearing out their cellars, drying carpets and bedding, and inaugurating a general renovation. General Hastings this evening said: "The work of cleaning up the city will be done by contract and negotiations will be opened at once with leading contractors. Several may be employed, but I cannot say who will get the work at this time. Until the Commissioners are appointed, Scott has volunteered his services and will render all the assistance in his power."

CLASSIFYING THE NEEDY.

Quartermaster Baker started out four men today to canvass Johnstown proper in order to classify those needing provisions. Tonight the men turned in 1187 names, and the city was not nearly all visited. Baker says that a surprising amount of need was unearthed. A great many ladies were found who were really suffering from want, but who had failed through a sense of delicacy to apply for aid. The humiliation of seeking relief is removed by the method now being introduced, and it is expected that the food and clothing which have been going in large lots to undeserving persons will now go to the more respectable and retiring class.

T. J. Oliver, of Philadelphia, who is in charge of the storehouse established in the German Catholic Church, said: "Twenty carloads of provisions and clothing were unloaded there today. Enough clothing is arriving in Johnstown to supply the city for two years."

REVOLTING SIGHTS.

Thirty-eight bodies were recovered today, all of them being in an advanced state of decomposition. In one or two instances maggots were at work on them, and the flesh was so soft that extreme care was necessary lest the limbs should be torn from the trunks.

THE ILL-FATED MISSIONARY.

This afternoon the body of Miss C. A. Christman, the foreign missionary from New Orleans, who was on the fated day express, was found. Her body was embalmed and sealed in a handsome casket to await the direction of friends. She was a woman of fine appearance, and was dressed handsomely in a light-brown dress with braided front. On her person was found a draft for $275, a valuable watch and a small amount of money.

The Typos in Convention.

DENVER, June 11.—The thirty-seventh annual convention of the International Typographical Union convened here last night. About two hundred delegates were present. After appointing several committees they adjourned until today. At the opening of today's session Mayor London delivered an address of welcome, which was responded to by President Plank of Indianapolis. The business of the session was confined to receiving the reports of the President, Secretary-Treasurer and Committee on Law, when a recess was taken till tomorrow morning. The principal subject which seems to most agitate the minds of the delegates present is "What disposition shall be made of the Childs-Drexel Fund," which now amounts to $22,000. Some favor the establishing of an insurance department, others the creation of a Widows' Fund, while an apparent majority favor establishing a home for aged printers. The subject will have considerable discussion at this meeting.

The Sons of Veterans.

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—The session of the third annual encampment of the California division, Sons of Veterans, concluded this evening. The following officers were elected for the encuing year: Major, E W. Conant, San Jose; Col., C. L. Robinson, Oakland; Lieutenant-Colonel, Dr. H. E. Wiard, Sacramento; Major, W. V. Kelley, Sacramento; L. S. Bixbey, Oakland; and D. J. Matlock, Los Angeles. Division Council delegates and representative respectively to the National encampment at Patterson, N. J. Dr. J. R. Laine, Sacramento, and Fre, S. Wood, Oakland; alternate delegate, Ulrich B. Collins, Chico; alternate representative, Will Fenton, Los Angeles. There was a sharp contest between delegates from Pasadena, Los Angeles, Chico and Oakland for the next annual encampment. Chico was selected and the encampment will be held there during the first week in May.

A SCARE FOR THE BOODLERS.

Possibility that the Weldon Extradition Bill may be Retroactive.

OTTAWA, ONT., June 11.—It is learned that the Weldon Extradition Bill is likely to be ratified by the Imperial government. The law officers of the Department of Justice regard the law as retroactive and including old time fugitives. It is doubtful, however, whether the executive would permit the extradition of those boodlers, as parliament distinctly voted down an amendment declaring the measure retroactive.

Baseball.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 11.—Boyle's pitching was effective until the seventh inning, when the visitors obtained three runs and the game. O'Brien was very effective, especially at critical times.

SCORE.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Indianapolis	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0—3
Cleveland	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	3	0—4

Base hits—Indianapolis 7, Cleveland 7. Errors—Indianapolis 2, Cleveland 5. Batteries—Indianapolis, Boyle and Meyers; Cleveland, O'Brien and Zimmer.

CHICAGO, June 11.—One of the finest games of the season was played here this afternoon. Ten innings were required before the game was finally decided. Staley's pitching was very effective and the home team could do nothing with him. Buckley's home-run hit in the tenth inning won the game for the visitors.

SCORE.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Chicago	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—3

Base hits—Chicago 3, Pittsburg 9. Errors—Chicago 5, Pittsburg 4. Batteries—Chicago, Gumbert and Darling; Pittsburg, Staley and Miller. Umpire—Lynch.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Two games were played here this afternoon, in which the home team won the first game, but lost the second.

SCORE—FIRST GAME.

A Vacant Judgeship.

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—The Governor, it is said, will not appoint a successor to Judge Temple, to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench before the first of July. It is stated that there is no foundation for the statement made by Oregon Sanders, at Fresno, on Monday, in which he declared that Governor Waterman had assured him that he would be appointed.

EXCHANGE REVIEW

NEW YORK, June 11.—Stocks to-day were quiet and firm for most of the list, but in spots it was decidedly active and very strong, and among such shares marked advances were scored as the result of the day's operations. The Trusts were less active, but exhibited some buoyancy, and sugar reached the highest point yet attained in the rise, the rumors in regard to it taking the shape that there is a large amount of undivided cash in the treasury of the company. Toward noon the market drifted into dullness and some recession from the prices of the first hour were made, but after that time there was a renewed buying on a large scale, and the Jersey Central rapidly advanced to 112, the highest price known in the stock for years. There were unusual realizations in the last hour, but the strength of the market was renewed and the close was active and strong at the highest prices of the day. Delaware and Hudson rose 3⅜, Jersey Central 3¼, Lackawanna 2 and Colorado Coal 1⅝.

Government bonds were dull and steady.

A HOMILY

BY OLD MACK AND YOUNG MACK, THE Furniture Brokers, 518 South Spring street. Some have ears but do not hear, eyes but they do not see. Such we leave to the tender mercies of Sam Jones and his ilk, but to those who hear with their ears and see with their eyes we would say if in want of anything in Second-Hand Furniture, that Old Mack and Young Mack's, 518 South Spring street, is the place to go. They carry an immense stock of everything, from a clothes pin to a second-hand circus, with brass band playing Yankee Doodle, Old Mack has some rare bargains to offer this week. Bedroom suites, lounges, sofas, rockers, mattresses, gasoline or cook stoves, tables of any kind, crockery or glassware, mouse traps, gopher traps, pots or pans, clothes racks. Rack your brain and think of something and call soon.

Remember the name is OLD MACK & YOUNG MACK, and the number 518 South Spring street.

SUMMONS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles. W. T. and A. D. Childress, plaintiff; vs. Edward Records and F. L. Goldsbury, defendants. Action brought in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and the complaint filed in said County of Los Angeles, in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court. The People of the State of California send greeting to Edward Records, defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this summons, if served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain the judgment of this Court against you in the sum of $951.82, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from October 15th, 1887, and 5 per cent. on the principal as attorney's fees. Said sums being due plaintiffs from defendants on account of a certain promissory note, dated March 1st, 1887, and for costs of suit. Reference is had to complaint for particulars.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said plaintiff will cause your default to be entered, and take judgment against you for the sum of $951.82, interest, and 5 per cent. attorney fees, and for cost.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, this 14th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER EXECUTION.

H. J. CURRY VS. H. R. WRIGHT—SHERIFF'S Sale, No. —.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Contra Costa, State of California, wherein H. J. Curry, plaintiff, and H. R. Wright, defendant, upon a judgment rendered the 6th day of January, A. D. 1889, for the sum of $72 00, in lawful money of the United States, besides costs and interest, I have this day levied upon all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant of, in and to the following described real estate, to wit:

All that real property situated in Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana, county of Los Angeles, State of California, bounded and described as follows: A tract of land embracing twenty (20) acres off the north side of the tract of forty (40) acres recently constituting the homestead of Isaac M. Leihy and wife, said tract occupied as a homestead being described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the southwest corner of the tract allotted in the final partition of the Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana to Ramundo Yorba; thence north along the west line of said tract eighty-four (84) rods; thence east seventy-four (74) rods; thence south to the Flint and Bixby tract in said rancho; thence southeasterly along said Flint and Bixby line to boundary line of Tustin City; thence to point of beginning, embracing forty (40) acres. The portion of said tract hereby levied upon being bounded on the north by the north line of said tract, on the east by the east line thereof, on the west by the west line thereof, and on the south by a line parallel to the north line and far enough therefrom to embrace just twenty (20) acres of land, no more and no less, together with all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof.

Public notice is hereby given that I will, on Monday, the 1st day of July, A. D. 1889, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, in front of the Court House door of the county of Los Angeles, on Spring street, sell at public auction, for cash lawful money of the United States, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant, H. ORDINANCE NO. 109.

(New Series).

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING THE INTENTION OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES TO CHANGE AND ESTABLISH THE GRADE OF ORANGE STREET FROM BONNIE BRAE STREET, FORMERLY CENTRAL AVENUE, TO ALVARADO STREET.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Los Angeles to change and establish the grade of Orange street, from Central Avenue to Alvarado street, as follows:

At the west line of Central avenue the grade shall be as now established, 18.00 feet above the datum plane.

At the intersection with Providence street the grade shall be 15.30 feet above the datum plane on the northeast and southeast corners, and 14.70 feet above the datum plane on the northwest and southwest corners.

At the intersection with Alvarado street the grade shall be 8.80 feet above the datum plane on the northeast corner, and 7.80 feet above the datum plane on the southeast corner.

SEC. 2. The City Clerk will certify to the passage of this ordinance, and shall cause the same to be published for ten days in the Los Angeles DAILY HERALD, and thereupon and thereafter it shall take effect and be in force.

I hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance was adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting of June 3, A. D. 1889.

ORDINANCE NO. 108.

(New Series)

AN ORDINANCE DETERMINING THAT THE PUBLIC INTEREST DEMANDS THE CONSTRUCTION OF CERTAIN PUBLIC SEWERS, THE COST OF WHICH WILL BE TOO GREAT TO BE PAID OUT OF THE ORDINARY ANNUAL INCOME AND REVENUE OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That the public interest and necessity of the city of Los Angeles demands the construction of certain public sewers, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the City of Los Angeles.

SEC. 2. The system of sewers mentioned in Section 1 of this ordinance is more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

OUTFALL SEWER.

The outfall sewer is to commence at the intersection of Grand avenue and Jefferson street, and run westerly on Jefferson to Wesley avenue; thence on Wesley avenue to right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, between Los Angeles and Santa Monica; thence along said right of way to Ballona station; thence along and near the county road from said station to the Pacific Ocean.

The form and size of said sewer to be oval, with internal transverse and vertical diameters of four and six feet, except at the crossing of Ballona creek and at the ocean end, where it will be circular, of the equivalent capacity.

The material in the construction of the said sewer to consist of brick, cement, concrete and iron.

The estimated cost is $440,000.

SOUTHERN INTERCEPTING SEWER.

Commences at the intersection of Grand avenue and Jefferson street and runs in a southeasterly direction on Jefferson street to the Southern Charter boundary; thence along said boundary to Santa Fe avenue; thence northerly on Santa Fe avenue to the Patent boundary; thence easterly on the Patent boundary to its intersection with Hostetter avenue.

The full bore capacity of said sewer from its commencing point to the east end of the crossing of the river shall be six million gallons per twenty-four hours, and the materials in its construction shall consist of either brick or salt-glazed vitrified pipe. From the last mentioned point to the terminus the size to be twenty inches, and to be of vitrified salt-glazed pipe.

The estimated cost is $60,000.00.

CENTRAL INTERCEPTING SEWER.

SEC. 8. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance by a vote of two-thirds of all the members of the Council of said city, and shall cause the same when approved by the Mayor of said city, to be published daily for two weeks in the Los Angeles DAILY HERALD, and thereupon and thereafter it shall take effect and be in force

I hereby certify that at a meeting of the Council of the city of Los Angeles, held Monday, May 27th, 1889, eight members of said Council voted in favor of the adoption of said ordinance, as will more fully appear by the records of said meeting, which said number being more than two-thirds of all the members of said Council, said ordinance was declared duly adopted.

FREEMAN G. TEED,
City Clerk of the City of Los Angeles.

Approved this 31st day of May, 1889.

HENRY T. HAZARD,
je3--14t Mayor.

ORDINANCE NO. 99.

(New Series.)

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING THE INTENTION OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES TO ESTABLISH THE GRADE OF ROCKWOOD STREET FROM BELMONT AVENUE TO UNION AVENUE.

The Mayor and Council of the City of Los Angeles do ordain as follows;

SECTION 1. That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Los Angeles to establish the grade of Rockwood street from Belmont avenue to Union avenue as follows:

At the intersection with Belmont avenue the grade shall be as now established, 153.50 feet above the datum plane on the southwest corner, and 154.50 feet above the datum plane on the northwesterly corner

At a point 300 feet west of the southwest corner of Belmont avenue the grade shall be 167 40 feet above the datum plane on both sides of Rockwood street.

At a point 350 feet west of the southwest corner of Belmont avenue the grade shall be 168 00 feet above the datum plane on both sides of Rockwood street.

At a point 450 feet west of the southwest corner of Belmont avenue the grade shall be 167.50 feet above the datum plane on both sides of Rockwood street.

At the intersection with Union avenue the grade shall be 161.00 feet above the datum plane on the northeast corner, and 161.50 feet above the datum plane on the southeast corner, as now established.

SEC. 2. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance and shall cause the same to published for ten days in the Los Angeles DAILY HERALD and thereupon and thereafter it shall take effect and be in force.

I hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance was adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting of May 27, A. D. 1889.

FREEMAN G. TEED,
City Clerk.

Approved May 31, 1889.

HENRY T. HAZARD,
je3 10t Mayor.

Mr. Bingham reports business as being rather quiet in the portion of the East that he visited. He says that Los Angeles presents a livelier appearance than any city west of Chicago.

NEWS NOTES.

A vacancy has been created in the Sheriff's force through the resignation of Carlten Kemp.

Police Judge Stanton yesterday fined an Upper Main street saloon-keeper $5 for leaving his horse unhitched.

Chernock and Blackman, charged with violating the fire ordinance, were discharged on trial by Police Judge Stanton yesterday.

Charles Campbell, charged with having entered the residence of C. M. Evells for purposes of burglary, was undergoing examination before Police Judge Owens yesterday.

Anton Russoe, a man of about thirty years of age, formerly in the employ of the Southern Pacific road, was taken to the County Jail yesterday to be examined for insanity.

Transfers of real estate yesterday amounted to $78,567, and were 56 in number. Of these 17 were for more than $1,000 each, and 11 were for nominal considerations.

Mary Gier was brought before Justice Lockwood yesterday on the charge of disturbing the peace in and around No. 62 Amelia street. The offense was committed last Wednesday.

Word was received at the Coroner's office yesterday that a Mexican by the name of Filipe Brajo had fallen dead of heart disease at San Fernando. The inquest will be held to-day by the Justice of the Peace.

James Bree was tried before Police Judge Stanton, yesterday, on the charge of having drawn a deadly weapon. On hearing the case the Court decided that no malice had been intended and the defendant was discharged.

The commencement exercises of Miss Marsh's school will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at No. 1119 Hill street. The exercises will consist of music, an address by the Rev. Mr. Birdsall and the presentation of diplomas.

A German by the name of Warden knocked out a deputy county assessor by the name of J. Holden, who applied to him yesterday to pay his poll tax. Warden claims that he has already been compelled to pay this tax tax twice.

James Ross was tried before Justice Lockwood yesterday on the charge of battery. He was found guilty and will appear this morning for sentence. He had a row with a Mexican in front of the Grand Central Hotel a week ago.

Sampson Lodge No. 148, Knights of Pythias, celebrated its anniversary on Monday evening en the East Side. The ladies were out in full force, and a very entertaining programme was given, followed by refreshments and dancing.

The following officers have been selected to represent the police at the ball match between them and the Constables: Fowle (c.), Auble (1 b.), Craig (2 b.), Lahart (3 b.), Conley (lf.), Dugan (cf.), Eastside (rf.), Engemann (ss.) and Hawley (p.)

Carl Domrick, who keeps a saloon on Alameda street, near Aliso, got into a fight with A. M. Kennedy, one of his customers, yesterday afternoon, and both were arrested. They were taken before Police Judge Stanton, and Domrick was fined $10 and Kennedy $20.

All who are interested in education, and in the Kindergarten in particular, are invited to attend a meeting to be held in the First Presbyterian Church next Friday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. L. P. Wilson, a Kindergarten trainer, will read a paper, and there will be addresses by prominent ministers of the city.

A. C. MacGrady, a young man who has been staying at the United States Hotel for some time, was taken to the County Jail yesterday while laboring under a violent attack of temporary insanity. It is the result of over-indulgence in drink. He was found in his room with a water pitcher in his hand with which he proposed to brain any one who came near him. He thought he was pursued by murderers.

The regular weekly meeting of the West End Board of Trade will be held at the corner of Temple and Metcalf streets this evening at 7:30. In addition to a number of important matters, the representative of a gas company, with whom arrangements are about completed for the erection of a plant in the West End, will be present, and all those desirous of having gas introduced into their homes are requested to be present.

A Chinaman named Ah Own was taken before Police Judge Stanton yesterday for stealing some wine bottles from a liquor store near Arcadia and Los Angeles streets. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5. He produced the money from a pocket in a linen belt which was wound about ten times around his body, and was nearly thirty feet in length. He had to untwist the entire length before he could get down to the money.

A complaint was sworn out in the District Attorney's office yesterday charging G. W. Adams with embezzling goods to the value of $400. The complaining witness is N. McCracken. The goods in question were two horses, a wagon, whip and blanket. Mr. Adams, according to his account, borrowed the outfit on a promise that he was going to drive to Los Nietos. It now appears that Mr. Adams is en route for Texas, where he has a sister living, whom he proposes to join.

Arthur Rising was arrested early yesterday morning for disturbing the peace, and was tried in the afternoon by Police Judge Stanton. Rising claims that Officer Roberts owed a woman, for whom he was acting as agent, $40. At 2 o'clock in the morning he tackled Roberts, who was on his beat on Los Angeles street, near Seventh, and demanded the money. When it was refused he indulged in a good deal of loud talk and the officer arrested him. On examining into the case the Court decided that there had been no misdemeanor committed and Rising was discharged.

A NEW RULE.

The Police Commissioners Will Provide a Ground for Dismissals.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet this afternoon, and it is anticipated that the usual circus will take place. A number of men will be removed from the force, and their places filled by those who were put on as specials two weeks ago. The Commissioners claim that this will be their last upsetting of the police list, and that when it is straightened out this time it will be let alone for the future, except that from time to time individual removals may be found necessary.

The means by which the removals will be made this afternoon is here, for the first time, made public. Sometime ago it was decided to adopt a code of rules to govern the police force and the action of the Police Commissioners. A committee was appointed to get these rules into shape and it will report at the meeting to-day. One of the rules for the guidance of the Commission will be that no man shall be appointed upon the force who did not vote at the municipal election immediately preceding his appointment. This rule will be made retroactive in its force and by virtue of its adoption. All the men now on the force who did not vote at the last city election will be considered discharged.

As to exactly how many men and what men the application of this rule will effect no one, not even the Commissioners themselves, can tell as yet. There are only three men whose names do not now stand on the books of the County Clerk as registered voters. There are ten or twelve whose names were not on the Great Register at the time of the last election. These, of course, could not have voted, as voting by card was not allowed.

As to who of the others voted, this can only be ascertained by an examination of the polling lists, or else by requiring an affidavit from each of the officers. This has not been done as yet, although Commissioner Lindley visited City Clerk Teed yesterday and discussed the question of what was the shortest way to get at the list of those who did not vote.

It is said, although this is not positively known to be a fact, that several men are to be discharged on general principles, and for the reason that the Commissioners want their places. It is not likely that the operation of the rule mentioned above will affect more than ten or fifteen men, and places are needed for more than that number.

It is not impossible that the Commission will confine its action this afternoon to the adoption of the rule, and will postpone the carrying out of its provisions until some subsequent meeting, as they may not yet have decided upon whose head the axe is to fall. It is, however, much more likely that the whole affair will come to a finish this afternoon.

MISS POCK'S DEATH.

Coroner Meredith Goes to Catalina to Hold the Inquest.

The Coroner went over to Catalina Island yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of Alice Pock, who was accidentally shot in a pistol gallery. The young lady was camping on the island with some friends. As there is no telegraphic connection between the island and the mainland, no fuller particulars of the affair could be obtained than those which were given in the HERALD of yesterday. A brother of the young lady is employed in the office of Payton & Grant. His name is George M. Pock, and he is under indictment for attempting to defraud creditors. The accident occurred some time Monday afternoon. Coroner Meredith will return to this city this morning, and will bring the papers containing the testimony taken before the jury of inquest.

NO LONGER A TERROR.

Modern Treatment That Cures Constipation.

According to the San Francisco dailies a remedy has been discovered that with almost unerring certainty overcomes constipation. It is the new laxative principle in Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. The papers are full of recent occurrences confirming its efficacy, and we give place to their last sensation, a card from San Francisco's well known lady manicure. She says: "I am willing to relate the following experience. I have for years had a weak stomach attended with constipation, and never found but one preparation that helped me and that soon wore out and lost its effect, and I was again a sufferer till I tried Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It helped me in every way and has thoroughly reorganized me. I had one of the most sensitive of stomachs and was in continual distress, but can with the aid of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla now eat any and everything with my old accustomed freedom without any evil effects. I am both surprised and delighted, and gladly recommend it." CLARA MELVIN, Manicure, 126 Kearney street, S. F.

THE POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

Preparations for the Exhibition at the Pavilion.

The Los Angeles County Poultry Association met last night in the Council Chamber, President James T. Brown in the chair, and J. D. Mercer Secretary. The exhibition at the Pavilion, to commence on the 24th instant, was the subject discussed during the major portion of the evening, and it appeared from statements made that the prospects are that it will be a very fine show. It was stated that there will be some very fine stock exhibited, and that a number of incubators will contest for diplomas. It was decided to advertise in the various papers, and that a banner be painted to hang at the Pavilion. The Printing Committee was empowered to furnish tickets, programmes and lists of entries. It was decided to set aside Thursday night, the 27th, for a lecture by Mr. Cooper, and a motion to allow incubators not entered for contest to occupy places on the floor received no second. The following were elected members of the Association: A. S. Lossee, Wm. Niles, B. Pattison, Wm. Buckingham, Mrs. A. N. Nelson, Wm. McBerney, John Nerney, C. F. Munson, John Tyrer, D. Emery, W. S. DR. M. HILTON WILLIAMS,
M. D., M. C. P. S. O.,
Specialist in all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest,
Including the Eye, Ear and Heart, together with DISEASES OF FEMALES,
OFFICE:
In the Hollenbeck Block, cor. Spring and Second Sts., Los Angeles, Cal.
Oxygen, Compound Oxygen, Nitrous Oxide, and other inhalations, used in all DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.
We have introduced the COMPOUND OXYGEN TREATMENT with our systems of practice in the cure of Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption Dyspepsia, Insomnia, Sore Throat, Catarrh Rheumatism and Nervous Prostration, while only the most improved methods are employe in all female complaints.
As is well known, oxygen is the life-giving principle in the air we breathe and ozone in the air imparts that happy and buoyant feeling after thunderstorms. Persons often require more oxygen than is in the air around them, and cause doors and windows to be opened, tear off collars, loosen the waist, and call for a fan to displace the stifling and bring fresher air or more oxygen. Traveling is done mainly to resorts where the air contains more oxygen, and mountains are ascended to breathe the ozone, which is light and ascends from the earth.
Oxygen and ozone are gases, and must be stored up and used by inhaling them. Our apparatus for storing and having these gases, compounded with other suitable agents, is perfect; and, although they are not a cure-all, yet they are undoubtedly the greatest invention made in the last 20 years in any department of medicine, and the results are truly wonderful.
Oxygen acts by purifying the blood, thereby increases the circulation, promotes absorption, improves digestion and assimilation, increases the capability of the lungs, and acts as a gentle stimulant to the nervous system.
The London, England, Lancet, very truthfully says: "The Compound Oxygen treatment is the greatest discovery of the Nineteenth Century." Clergymen, statesmen, lawyers, doctors, and all classes indiscriminately, wherever it is introduced, both use and recommend it.
The testimonials given below are very fair samples as to the time required for effecting cures in these troublesome diseases:
Dr. Williams—DEAR SIR: I am happy to say that the cure you effected in me for a severe case of throat disease has proved to be permanent. For over a year I was troubled with post-nasal catarrh and granulated throat disease, and had done so much for it that I had but little hopes of ever being cured, when I first went to you, but you gave me such positive assurance that you could cure me that I began your treatment, and in four months from that time you discharged me as cured, and I am happy to say the cure was a permanent thing in every particular up to the present time, which is now over a year. Yours very truly, MRS. LUCY H. TRASK,
809 South Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.
Dr. M. Hilton Williams—DEAR SIR: I have been contemplating for some time past making a statement of my case and the benefit I have derived from your treatment, remembering how glad I would have been could I have seen something of the kind from a person in the city, to whom I could have referred, when I first came to Los Angeles from my home in New York State.
I had been suffering for several years with what various physicians in the East pronounced "chronic ulcerated laryngitis." I spent considerable time at the Clifton Sanitarium, and employed the best medical skill I could find, all without any permanent benefit, and as a last resort our family physician recommended Los Angeles. For a time I improved, and then I began to go backward and all my former symptoms returned.
Through a medial friend I was induced to try your treatment. I became very much discouraged at times, but persevered, as I felt almost desperate and knew of nothing else to turn to. My throat trouble being aggravated by a serious stomach difficulty, made it very obstinate to deal with, but at last, after persevering for a time with your remedies, I consider I am permanently cured. If this will be of any value to you, you are at perfect liberty to use it; also to refer anyone to my mother, my husband or myself. Very truly yours,
MRS. J. D. WILEY,
